

THE NORTH CAROLINA SHELL CLUB

The next meeting of the North Carolina Shell Club will be held on June 1 at the beautiful home of Mr. Herman Weil, 700 East Beech Street, Goldsboro, North Carolina. The hour of the meeting will be 2:30 p. m.

PROGRAM

- 2:30 Business
- 2:45 Introduction to Conchology G. S. Turner
- 3:00 Showing of Favorite Shells Members
- 3:15 Examination of Mr. Weil's magnificent collection of Shells.
- 3:45 Informal (Exchange of shells, etc.)
- 4:00 Adjournment.

You are invited to bring one of your favorite shells and tell a little of its history.

Second meeting of N.C. Shell Club-
Goldsboro, N.C.
June 1, 1957

NOTE: President G. Scott Turner has presented to the State Museum a series of 33 excellent kodachrome lantern slides of SEA SHELLS and these may be borrowed from the Museum by those wishing to study this subject.