

Sixth meeting.

THE NORTH CAROLINA SHELL CLUB will meet at
YAUPON BEACH near SOUTHPORT, N.C.
Saturday, May 3rd, 1958

10:00 a.m. A group will meet at the entrance to the Baptist Assembly, Fort Caswell for a collecting tour of Caswell Beach.

2:00 p.m. Business meeting at Yaupon Beach - Skating Rink

3:00 p.m. Collecting trips at Yaupon and Holden's Beach.

This is to be a "Field" meeting. It is hoped that many may be able to spend the weekend at the beach. Cottages at the Yaupon Beach Village Motel may be rented for $6.00 per night and as many as four may occupy one room for this price. Reservations should be made with the Yaupon Village Motel, Barbees Inc., Southport, N. C.

Shells will be on display and there will be some for exchange and sale.

To Reach:

Yaupon Village is on a long, narrow island off the N. C. Coast near Southport, halfway between Ft. Caswell and Long Beach at J-6 on the State Highway Map. From either North, South or West, it is necessary to get on U. S. Route 17, turning on to State Route 130 at Supply, N.C.
It is 14 miles from Supply to the road leading to Yaupon Village.
